Tri Counties Bank Announces Recipients of Additional $1 Million Camp Fire Fund Donation

CHICO, CA – DECEMBER 12, 2019 – Tri Counties Bank announced today the recipients of the $1 million donation by the Lytton Rancheria Tribe to the Tri Counties Bank Camp Fire Fund in 2018 to assist with long-term rebuilding and recovery programs. These funds were in addition to the more than $900,000 raised through GoFundMe and Tri Counties Bank branch donations, which were previously distributed to local non-profit emergency relief agencies directly serving fire victims with immediate needs.

This additional $1 million donation will be used to build affordable housing, provide infrastructure, purchase a new fire truck, assist small businesses affected by the Camp Fire, and assist with victims' overall recovery. Funds from the Lytton Rancheria Tribe donation will be distributed to the following organizations:

- United Way of Northern California
- Enloe Foundation
- GRID Alternatives
- Community Housing Improvement Program (CHIP)
- Hope Crisis Response Network
- PEP Housing
- North Valley Housing Trust
- Center for Learning & Resilience (BCOE)
- Town of Paradise
- Rebuilding Paradise Foundation
- 3Core

“The Lytton Rancheria is thrilled to see that our donation will be used to directly aid the Camp Fire victims and their families as they begin to recover and rebuild their lives,” said Lytton Tribal Chairperson Margie Mejia. “Our Tribe looks forward to working with the community to uplift and restore Butte County.”

“We are proud to be a part of the rebuilding of Butte County after the devastating Camp Fire and facilitate this vital support,” said Richard Smith, President and CEO of Tri Counties Bank. “The people of this community are resilient. We will overcome this tragedy together and come out stronger on the other side.”
