

CODE OF ETHICS FOR CEO
AND SENIOR FINANCIAL OFFICERS
(Approved by Board 08/24/2023)

TriCo Bancshares (the "Company") has adopted this Code of Ethics (this "Code") for the CEO and Senior Financial Officers to ensure the integrity of the Bank's financial reporting and transactions. This Code applies to the Chief Executive Officer ("CEO") of the Company and Tri Counties Bank (collectively, the "Company") and all Senior Financial Officers, including the Chief Financial Officer ("CFO"), principal accounting officer, controller, and such other financial officers of the Company as the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors may from time to time designate (each a "Senior Financial Officer").

The Company's Code of Ethics and Business Conduct Policy sets forth the Company's fundamental policies, principles and procedures. The above relevant officers are bound by the standards and requirements set forth in the Code of Ethics and Business Conduct Policy as well as the standards and requirements set forth in this Code. Violations of this Code will result in immediate disciplinary action up to and including immediate discharge from employment.

BUSINESS ETHICS AND CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

As a CEO or a Senior Financial Officer, leadership responsibilities include creating a business culture of high ethical standards and an unwavering commitment to compliance with all laws, rules and regulations. All actions must be carried out with honesty and integrity, avoiding actual or apparent conflicts of interest between personal and professional relationships. These officers are prohibited from exploiting their position or relationship with the Company for personal gain. Although it is impossible to list every conceivable conflict of interest, the following are some illustrative examples of conflicts or interest:

- You or a member of your family has more than a modest ownership or financial interest in the Company's competitors, clients or vendors;
- You or a member of your family use nonpublic Company, client or vendor information for personal gain;
- You cause the Company to engage in business transactions with family or friends; or
- You compete, or prepare to compete, with the Company while still employed by the Company.

If you have any questions regarding what constitutes a conflict of interest, the Legal Department or Human Resources Department should be contacted.

ACCURATE PERIODIC REPORTS

The CEO and Senior Financial Officers are responsible for assuring full, fair, accurate, timely and understandable disclosure of relevant financial information to shareholders and investors. In particular they are responsible for assuring that the Company complies with Securities and Exchange Commission rules governing disclosure of financial information and for assuring that press releases and communications with investors and securities analysts are fair and accurate. As a CEO or a Senior Financial Officer, you should:

- establish and maintain internal controls and procedures and disclosure controls and procedures designed to assure that financial information is recorded, processed and transmitted to those responsible for preparing periodic reports and other public communications containing financial information so that they are complete, accurate, and timely;
- carefully review each periodic report for accuracy and completeness before it is filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission and carefully review each public communication containing financial information before it is released;
- maintain books, accounts and records according to generally accepted accounting principles, using enough detail to accurately and fairly reflect Company transactions; and
- promptly disclose to your superiors, and if necessary, to the Audit Committee, any material weaknesses in, or concerns regarding, the Company's disclosure controls or internal controls.

COMPLIANCE WITH APPLICABLE LAWS

The CEO and Senior Financial Officers are expected to comply with all applicable laws, rules and regulations of federal, state and local governments, and other appropriate private and public regulatory agencies.

REPORTING MISCONDUCT

If you become aware or suspect that the Company or any CEO or Senior Financial Officer is violating any law or this Code, you have a duty to report such violation to the Chief Audit Executive, General Counsel or the Human Resources Department and to the Audit Committee. All reports will be dealt with confidentially. Neither the Company nor any of its employees shall take retaliatory action against any person for making a good faith report.

In addition, the Company has established a confidential employee hotline and web reporting portal through Navex EthicsPoint (EthicsPoint). The EthicsPoint hotline is toll-free, available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week and it is anonymous and completely confidential. Just call 844-920-1189 or visit tcbk.ethicspoint.com to report any accounting and auditing irregularity or related issue that makes you uncomfortable.

If you have any questions or concerns regarding this Code, you should seek guidance from the Legal Department or the Human Resources Department.

WAIVERS OF THIS CODE

The Board of Directors of the Company must approve any waiver of the provisions and policies of this Code for a CEO or Senior Financial Officer. Any such waiver must be promptly disclosed to the Company's shareholders, along with the reasons for such waiver, in accordance with applicable law and the rules and regulations of the Nasdaq Stock Market.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

By signing below, I acknowledge that I have received and read copies of the TriCo Bancshares Code of Ethics and Business Conduct Policy as well as the Code of Ethics for the CEO and Senior Financial Officers and that I understand each document's contents. I understand that a violation of either of these Codes may result in disciplinary action up to and including the termination of my employment with TriCo Bancshares and/or Tri Counties Bank.
